

How will you jumpstart your future?

August 16 – 19, 2016
Nestlé USA Headquarters, Glendale, CA

The 8th Annual Nestlé Diversity Leadership Symposium (DLS) is a four-day intensive business program where you, a diverse undergraduate student, will:

- Gain invaluable exposure to life and careers at the world's largest food and beverage company
- Network with business leaders
- Partake in leader development skill sessions
- Give back to the community through volunteerism
- Build a network of peers from universities across the nation
- Interview for a summer 2017 internship or full-time development trainee program, returning to school with the chance of a job offer and scholarship offer in hand

REQUIREMENTS:

- Must graduate between December 2016 and June 2018
- Résumé and experience should demonstrate leadership, a commitment to diversity & inclusion, and a potential fit with one of Nestlé's internship or trainee programs

Ideal for diverse students committed to jump starting their career in business!
Nestlé USA pays for all reasonable travel and accommodations. See website for full criteria and details.

APPLY TODAY!

www.nestle.fluidreview.com

APPLICATION DEADLINE: APRIL 12, 2016

